(1) Invisible Hands can help with groceries and prescription deliveries for vulnerable people. Visit www.invisiblehandsdeliver.com to request assistance.

(2) If you are feeling extremely anxious, depressed or hopeless, text 741741 to be connected to a trained Crisis Text Line counselor. This service is free, confidential and available 24/7. For more information, visit www.crisistextline.org

Can you lend a hand?

(1) Restaurants need our help! Order takeout or delivery. Tell Congress restaurants need help. Text RECOVERY to 52886 #restaurantrecovery

(2) Shop local. Shop online. Many of our businesses are offering gift cards. Visit their websites or our Instagram feed @montaguebid to keep up to date on the latest information.

(3) Kindness. We're all in this together.

- Check on neighbors
- Offer to shop for a senior in your building who may be vulnerable
- Report price gouging to 311
- Make eye contact and smile with people on the street while you're social distancing -- it goes along way during times of isolation
- If you have a doorman or maintenance person in your building, think about ordering them a meal or giving them a gift card
- If you can, tip and thank delivery people.

(4) Invisible Hands: If you're healthy and able to, sign up with the nonprofit to help deliver groceries, prescriptions and whatever else they may need to their doorstep. Visit them at www.invisiblehandsdeliver.com

Special thanks to all of you who continue to support our neighboring business by purchasing gift cards, shopping online and ordering take out and delivery.
