

Hello Friends and Neighbors,

Montague Street and all of New York City remain open for business.

At this time, according to the City of New York, New Yorkers do not need to limit travel within the city, change where they purchase food or how they prepare it, or avoid public gatherings and public transportation. New Yorkers are reminded to stay home if they feel sick, and practice good hygiene.

Here are a few links to information that you may be interested in:

For the latest information and best practice guidelines for COVID-19 visit DOHMH's website at <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/doh/health/health-topics/coronavirus.page>

To receive text updates from the city, Text COVID to 692-692

Click here for information from the Department of Health about the coronavirus. Click here for information from Health and Hospitals on their New Patient and Visitor Policy.

For small businesses who wish to stay up to date on industry-specific information, here is a link: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/N336ZYB>

For updated guidance for small business owners from New York City's Small Business Services visit: <https://files.constantcontact.com/ef416ee8001/034b7539-fe5e-47a2-87e5-5f55ffa5a65c.pdf>

For an Emergency planning checklist for small businesses, visit http://www.nyc.gov/html/nycbe/downloads/pdf/EM_SBSBCPWorksheetsMar2017.pdf

For the CDC's Business Planning Checklist for Pandemics, visit: <https://files.constantcontact.com/ef416ee8001/eb47f014-79bd-4ba7-acd9-3119871943cc.pdf>

If you have any questions, please contact 311.

As we continue to breathe deeply through this unprecedented time in all of our lives, stay well and shop local.

Kate

Kate Chura
Executive Director, Montague Street Business Improvement District
kate@montaguebid.com

